

The Sacramento River Cats in partnership with The City of Sacramento, Access Leisure will hold

11th Annual "BASEBALL FOR ALL"

FREE Skills Clinic at River Cats Independence Field
May 12, 2012, 10am-1pm

Pre-Registration required-“Complete a registration and return to Jenny Yarrow- available online”

The Sacramento River Cats and Access Leisure are proud to announce the 11th Annual “Baseball for All” skills clinic is being held Saturday, May 12th, 2012. This FREE skills clinic is held on the fully accessible River Cats Independence Field, 2450 Meadowview Road. Current River Cats players will be giving back by coaching the junior athletes participating in this event. This awesome opportunity is open to children age 4 through school age with disabilities. Each ball player will need to bring one parent/guardian over the age of 18 with them to the clinic. Participants will receive a “Baseball for All” tee shirt and the participant and his or her adult companion will be served lunch. In addition to this awesome clinic, each ballplayers will receive 2 free tickets to the Tuesday, May 29th, 2012 River Cats home game at Raley Field. Additional tickets will be available through the River Cats Ticket office.

Event Details:

For more information E-mail Jenny Yarrow at jjarrow@cityofsacramento.org

Event Name: 11th Annual “Baseball for All” Free Skills Clinic

Date(s): Saturday, May 12, 2012

Times: 10am to 1pm

Where: River Cats Independence Field, 2450 Meadowview Road

Fee: Free of Cost

